In the case of the Cadillac, this admission of greater value is freely and frankly given.

And yet-contrary to world-wide custom -the Cadillac is lower in price than the cars which eagerly seek comparison with it.

Moreover, it outsells all of them combined by a vel ume which is something like one-third greate

This latter fact explains why the Cadillac is no? only the world's greatest value in point of all that constitutes superb performance, but the world's greatest value in price as well.
